ANNOUNCEMENTS BREED THEATER.

Father, Superb Vitagraph Feature Picture.

All lovers of the ever popular Mau-rice Costello of the Vitagraph pany will be pleased to see him in the powerful part of a burgiar incidental to the production of Bobby's Father. He is seen in a most unusual part, that of a burgiar, in which he enters that of a burglar, in which he enters a home of a prominent lawyer where his deserted child has been adopted. The moment of the meeting between faiher and child is one long to be remembered, for it causes the reformation of the burglar and means a home that rightfully belongs to the child. Of especial interest is the Essanay film featuring G. M. Anderson and Miss Vedah Bertram. It is entitled Broncho Billy Outwitted and is another of the great Broncho Billy series that are world-famous, and shows the sharp wits of a young western girl in capturing and holding the young sheriff while her father escapes, all this within view of the sheriff, who cannot help but admire the young girl for her pluck and strategy.

STAFFORD SPRINGS FAIR. Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Octo-

The Stafford Springs fair, which is in a class by itself, is an amusement event replete with interest. The crowd that this fair always draws is one of the features. The fukirs who follow the crowds are out in force at Stafford, and the midway is a busy, noisy thoroughfare, with all kinds of inducements to coral the dimes and nickels. Another feature of the Stafford fair is the big free platform show. Nothin but the beat is the rule for this branch of the show. The attractions this year include Dare Devil Volo in his hrilling loop the loop bleycle act; Tompkin and his herd of hish school horses the Grunathel family of seven acrobats, fresh from an engagement of year at the New York Hippodrome the Ernesto Trio, and a number of other star events. There will be arother star events. There will be arother star events. There will be arother star events. This Will Stop Your Cough in a Hurry

Save $2 by Making This Cough

This recipe makes a pint of better cough symp than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough—stops even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or

A FEW SEASHORE LOTS

A FEW SEASHORE LOTS

Situated in the Town of Charlestown, R. I., fronting the Atlantic Ocean, on one of the best bathing beaches in the state. These lots are fifty (50) feet frontage on ocean and one hundred lifty (150) feet deep. In the rear of these lots there is a sait water pond nine miles long, sandy bottom, exceitent boating and fishing. The price of these lots is two hundred ($500) dollars. Remember the prices that were paid for lots at Pleasant View four years ago and the prices that are being paid now. These cottage sites that I am offering for only $200 are on the same ocean, same beach, only a few miles east of Pleasant View. Here is a chance to buy a seashore cottage site at a low figure and have it increase in value many fold in a year or two. Avail yourselves of this opportunity and don't be among those that will say (after they are all sold) I wish I had bought one. Come and look these lots over and remember if you purchase one I pay your expenses for any distance not over 100 miles. Transportation from Westerly in auto. Investigate.

POETRY "RECONTRE."

PRESS DESPATCHES

Oh, was I born too soon, my dear, or was I born too late,
That I am going out the door while you come in the gate?
For you the gatden blooms galore, the custle is en fete: You are the coming guest, my dear-for me the horses wait.

I know the mansion well, my dear, its rooms so rich and wide;
If you had only come before I might have been your guide,
And hand in hand with you explore
the treasures that they hide;
But you have come to stay, my dear,
and I prepare to ride.

Then waik with me an hour, my dear, and pluck the reddest rose. Amid the white and crimson store with which your garden glows.

A single rose—I ask no more of what your love bestows;
It is enough to give, my dear—a flower to him who goes.

The House of Life is yours, my dear,
for many and many a day.
But I must ride the lonely shore, the Road to Far Away;
So bring the stirrup-cup and pour a
brimming draft, I pray,
And when you take the road, my dear,
I'll meet you on the way.
—Henry Van Dyke, in Current Literature.

Do you know what it is to be tired With your muscles all doubled in pain.

And your nerves in a state not desired.

If expecting to use them again?

Do you know what it is to be weary.
With a throb in the back of your head,
When the world looks neglected and dreary.
And nothing is sweet but your head? Do you know what it is to be frausled And fagged out, and all in for keeps. When your poor cerebellum goes das-zled And your optics are rigged up for weeps?

Do you know how to feel trritated.

When you ought to feel care free and gay?

Have you ever impatiently waited For the hostler to make up your hay?

Oh, the world is a place made for tolling.

And the back, it must bend to the lead;
We must dig when the hot sun is brolling.

We must flinch at the flash of the goad!

But here is a toast I will make you! A smile to the people who weep! So laugh, Brother, laugh—Devil take For only the sluggard shall sleep!

—Baltimore Sun.
